Dear Mr. Farthing

Workplace Gender Equality Agency (Agency) notice of compliance

Thank you for submitting your annual compliance report, for the period 2013 to 2014. Following an assessment of your report, I am pleased to advise that your organisation is compliant with the Workplace Gender Equality Act 2012 (Act). This letter forms your notice of compliance with the Act should you wish to buy goods and services from, or enter into a contract with, the Australian Government.

The 2013-14 reporting period signalled the start of a new reporting framework available online. One of the significant benefits of this new framework is the ability for the Agency to produce industry-specific educational benchmarks based on the analysis of standardised data submitted each year. Towards the end of this year, you will receive a confidential, customised benchmark report. This report will provide you with the evidence base to focus your efforts to improve your gender performance. It will also provide you with valuable information on your organisation's performance compared to others in your industry and enable you to track your progress over time.

WGEA is committed to supporting organisations to maximise the full potential of female and male talent. We have a range of innovative tools and resources that are freely available on our website, www.wgea.gov.au. Alternatively, you can phone us and ask to speak with one of our senior advisors by calling (02) 9432 7000 or 1800 730 233.

Yours sincerely

Helen Conway
Director
